HAVANA CHIEF FATALLY HURT

He Is Shot as Result of Raid on Fashionable Gambling Club.

Havana, July 7 .- General Armando Riva, chief of the national police, was shot and mortally wounded during a pistel fight this evening in the most pistel fight this evening in the most crowded portion of the Prado. General Ernesto Asbert, Governor of Havana Province; Senator Vidal Morales and Representative Arias were involved in the fighting, which was the outcome of a raid made by General Riva Saturday night on the Asbert Club, when a large number of members were caught gambling. General Riva drove to the Asbert Club this evening and caused the arrest of the doorkeeper. and caused the arrest of the doorkeeper for illegally carrying a revolver. As-bert, Morales and Arias arrived in an automobile about the same time, and a heated dispute arose. Insults were exchanged and firearms drawn on both sides. General Riva fell with a bullet in his head and another in his abdo-their car and departed at full speed They later returned and surrendered. General Riva was taken to a hospi al, where he made a statement that he was shot by Governor Asbert. An

MARSHALS MAY BE OUSTED FROM JOBS

Promise That More Federal Plums Will Drop in Near Future.

[S; ecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, July 7—Information reached The Times-Dispatch correspondent to-day which should bring joy to the hearts of Virginia Democrats waiting for Federal positions under the Department of Justice. For some reason known to the administration, but not to others, it has so far been the policy of Attorney-General McReynolds to allow United States marshals and others serving under his departand others serving under his depart-ment to continue until their commis-sions should expire, and not to ask for their resignations. However, it became known here to-day that Mr. McRey-nolds would, within the next few days, ask for the resignations of the tree ask for the resignations of the two marshals in Florida, and that this ac-tion, in all probability, would be fol-lowed in other States within the near e position of United States marwithin the State, and longing eyes have been cast upon those now in office. Practically nothing has been able to shake the Attorney-General in Taking the Florida cases as a precedent, it was said here to-day that the same thing probably would be done in Virginia and elsewhere, although the Department of Justice would not discuss the matter, P. H. McG.

Six Persons Flurt in Wreek.

West Chester, Pac July 7.—Six persons were bardly injured and several others slightly, when a Pennsylvania freight engine crashed into a passenger train which was standing at the station here. The most seriously injured were Anthony Landers, the freight brakeman, who jumped, and J. F. Montgomery, of Philadelphia. All the injured were taken to the depot the injured were taken to the depot and sent to their homes. Failure of the freight engine brakes to work is given as the cause of the wreck.

Arson Attempt Falls.

Southport, England, July 7.—Militant suffrageties to-day attempted to burn down the recreation pier, a mile long, at this watering place. Not much dam-

"Berry's for Clothes."

These Shoes illustrate the survival of the fittest for summer comfort.

Tans, of course - they look cooler than the black.

Some cut so low they are almost like pumps, but they are high enough at the heel Asbert and his friends re-entered to hold on without gripping.

They're the Berry Shoe. If you don't know themcome in to-day.

Prices, $3.50 to $6.00.

Brown Silk Socks, of course, from 50c to $1.50.

Say what you will, the tion of the bank.

"The Pittsburgh Clearing House committee, which has been engaged in Trousers with a nice fitting going over the affairs of the bank with the examiners, and in making a care-Blue Serge Coat is a striking and most comfortable combination and most comfortable combination.

They're here.

FOR EXALTED RULER

Elks.

Rochester, N. Y., July 7.—With the feeling between the "regulars" and the his determination to permit incum-bents to hold on, and although pres-Lodge of Elks, convening in this city. "insurgents" growing stronger every sure has been strong Republican office-holders have sat back contentedly, be-lieving that they would not be mo-larted for some time.

Lake City To-Day, Salt Lake City, Utah, July 7.—With nine scheduled meetings to-day, includ-ing the opening of the general sessions, the National Education Association members began a many-sided activity that will last until Friday. Governor Spry, Mayor Park and other officials delivered addresses of welcome, which were responded to by Davis B. Johnson. president of Winthrop Normal and In-custrial College, South Carolina. Presi-dent Edward T. Fairchild's annual address contained a plan for Ten separate societies are meeting in conjunction with the association.

tion of the management of the associa-

The Excessive Use of DRUGS and LIQUOR

Has brought more promising careers to an end-has caused more unhappiness, more crime-has plunged more men and women to utter ruin-than any other evil since time began,

The wonder is that this should be true, as the longing for drugs and liquor CAN BE OVERCOME. It has been scientifically proved that the habit is a form of disease, and if properly handled persons addicted to the use of drugs and liquor MAY BE CURED. Our proposition is, NO CURE, NO PAY.

You have everything to gain-nothing to lose-by seeking our

Full information, absolutely confidential, may be obtained by

The Dr. H. L. Devine Sanitarium, Inc. 200 North Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, Richmond, Va. Dr. George F. Bagby, Medical Director,

FINANCIAL CRASH BRINGS DISASTER

Due to oth r national banks, $9,-239,871.82.

Due to State banks and bankers $1,448,118.71. Due to trust companies and savings banks, $3,712,210.31.

Due to approved reserve agents, $252,535.41.
Dividends unpaid, $1,630.
Individual deposits subject to check, $15,105,144.50.

Demand certificates of deposit, $385,-Time certificates of deposit, $16,-

Certified checks, $472,869.10. Cashlers' checks outstanding, $76,

United States deposits, $149,514.18.

United States deposits, $149,814.18.
Postal savings deposits, $10,458.86.
Total, $38,103,886.39.
Mr. Kane's Statement.
To-night Mr. Kane issued the following statement:
"At a meeting of the directors of the First-Second National Bank held on Sunday, the condition of the bank and the results of the recent investigation of the bank examiners were discussed. After full consideration, the directors After full consideration, the directors declared their inability to make good the bank's impaired capital, and with-out dissent, decided that it would be best for the protection of depositors and all other interests to have the Comptroller of the Currency take. charge and to arrange for the liquida-stances there was no alternative to the course recommended by the bank's di-

"The officers of the bank have ex-"The officers of the bank have expressed to the department the belief that there will ultimately be but little if any loss to the bank's depositors. The liquidation of the bank and the distribution of its assets will proceed "The acting Compt rency took charge of National Bank of Partianal Bank of P as expeditiously as possible."

Closing Not Unexpected.

all in good condition, and we believe that the banks and trust companies in the city of Pittsburgh, as a whole, are prepared for any emergency. It The position of United States marshal in Virginia is one of the best which the administration will have to offer where the work is done entirely

The position of United States marshal in Virginia is one of the best Wew York Man Likely to Be that the banks and trust companies in the city of Pittsburgh, as a whole, are prepared for any emergency. It exaited ruler, and each candidate has his own special corps of boosters, who are doing their utmost for the election of their respective candidate.

Gossip in Elks' circles concedes the election of Edward Leach, of the New election of Edward Leach, of the New and notice for larger amounts was provided in the position of the position done in Virginia and caewhere, as though the Department of Justice would not discuss the matter. But Mode and the Color of the Color of broadcast by a press agent for the Kuhn interests, in which a director of the bank, "whose name could not be used," was quoted as saying the government was unjust and was treating the bank unfairly. The statements quoted the unnamed director as saying the government was responsible for the merging of the two banks because it was sanctioned by Lawrence O. Murit was sanctioned by Lawrence O. Murray, then Comptroller of the Currency. The statement was almost immediately recalled by the distributors of the reignored.

When application was made in the serve of the First-Second National Bank and the subsequent examination brought matters to a climax.

J. S. and W. S. Kuhn, Inc., bankers, known as the Kuhn interests, are incorporated in Delaware with a capital stock of $500,000. James S. Kuhn is charlength of the James S. also is president of the American Water Works and Guarantee Company, with a capital of $20,000,000. Bind W. S. Kuhn is vice-president of this company.

The Kuhn interests become a company of the company of the company of the company of the company.

Interested in Irrigation. westment in water works preparations, coal and timber lands and interurban railway companies, together with the financing of an office building, are given as some of the causes leading up to to-day's suspensions. An alleged deficiency of $2,145,000 in the legal reserve of the First-Second National Bank and the subsequent agramination.

The Kuhn interests have centred largely of late in irrigation projects in the West They also control the West Pennsylvania Traction and Water ower Company, a combination of trol ey line interests in Western Pennsyl vania, and the operations of a group of bituminous mines in this State, especially the United Coal Company, of which W. S. Kuhn is president and discrete.

Other interests of W. S. Kuhn are Colonial Trust Company, of this city; Commercial National Bank and Com-monwealth Trust Company, of this city;

UNSOUND BANKING CAUSE OF FAILURE

Crash of First-Second National Wipes Out "Sore Spot," Leaving Pittsburgh Situation Sound-Mc-Adoo Says General Condition Is Good.

that the receivership of this institu-tion removed a long standing "sore spot" in the Pittsburgh situation, leaving the general condition in that

The secretary will make a sweeping investigation of the causes of the failure of the big bank, and probably will call upon the Department of Jus-tice to assist Suspicions Discrepancy.

It developed to-might that one fact which drew the critical attention and suspicion of the Treasury Department to the bank's condition was a discrepancy of nearly $2,000,000 between the sworn report to the Comptroller of the comptroller of the bank as presented to the comptroller of the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000,000 between the sworn report to the Comptroller of the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that the statement of condition of the bank as presented to the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that the statement of condition of the bank as presented to the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that the statement of condition of the bank as presented to the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that they will not long be side separators, and the Balkan states discovered by the June 4 call of the Comptroller of the Currency that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that the state-ment of condition of the bank as presented to the comptroller and as published in the newspapers, were differently $2,000, and that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the currency that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the currency that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the currency that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the currency that they will not long be side separators, and the structure of the currency that they will not long be side separators. of the Currency as to the bank's condition on June 4, and what should have ent.

The report for the First National of the report pub-ssets and liabilities aggregating $33, 297,317.10 each, while, as given to the Pittsburgh newspapers for publication. If possib the report placed these totals at $38,-103,886.39, the $1,893,460.71 difference representing rediscounts or borrowed money, Officials declared that this stock of the bank has been impaired, and that the surplus and profts have been wiped out. While details are lacking, estimates based upon the last report to the Comptroller of the Currency indicate that at this rate the losses might reach $3,000,000.

Secretary McAdoo's statement was in part as follows:

"The acting Comptroller of the Currency took charge of the First-Second National Bank of Pittsburgh to-day, because its directors, at a meeting held in Pittsburgh to-day, in Pittsburgh to-day, because its directors, at a meeting held in Pittsburgh yesterday, expressed their inability to make good an impairment of its capital, and decided their Reports to the depertment indicate

Closing Not Unexpected.

After a protracted meeting of the Pittsburgh Clearing House Association, this inetitution to-night, issued the following:

"The closing of the First-Second National Bank by the deputy comptroller of the curren; was not entirely unsuch that the expected by this association, and it was therefore prepared for the curren of the current of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts at tempts, it is said, had been under the gurvellance of the government, various attempts at the church the gurvellance of the government, various attempts at the church the gurvellance of the government, various

the city of Pittsburgh, as a whole, are prepared for any emergency. It will take several days to arrange for the transfer of accounts and the proper careful handling of checks made upon the First-Second National Bank. We, therefore, ask the induigence of the public, and request that they help in any way possible to assist in the solution of the problem confronting the clearing house committee and the hanks.

During the early hours of to-day a purpose of the problem on the Pittsburgh Bank of Coal Company, Twin Falls Northside Land and Water Company, I will be a problem to the problem confronting the clearing house committee and the hanks.

During the early hours of to-day a coal Company and West Pennsylvania coal Company and West Pennsylvania. Coal Company and West Pennsylvania Traction Company, West Pennsylvania Fraction and Water Power Company, and Westinghouse Electric and Manuwas publicly flogged with a horse-whip here this afternoon by Mrs. J. J. Lee, who is the wife of an office at-

to-night, charged with disorderly con-

Christian Endeavor Hopes to

Make This Saloonless

Nation by 1920.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

perance and Christian citizenship of the Christian Endeavor host, a confer-ence will be held in Columbus, Ohio, in

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Emporia, Va., July 7.—R. B. Hartley, of Stony Creek, and P. F. Moss, of Sussex County, candidates for the Legislature, spoke before a small audience in Emporia to-day.

It was in no sense a joint debate, but merely an outline of each candidate's position upon public affairs in Virginia.

It would appear that Mr. Hartley strongly favors the passage of the "enabling act," while Mr. Moss stands for the "will of the majority of the people." Both candidates claim they are being assured of strong support, and each feels he will receive the nomination in the primary.

Penfield Is Nominated.

Washington, July 7.—President Wilson to-day nominated Frederic Courtland Penfield to be ambassador to Austria-Hungary.

NATIONAL FIGHT

Companies Controlled.

Among the companies controlled by the American Water Works and Guarport, but the recall in many places was antee Company are: Arkansas Water ignored. Company, Little Rock, Ark.; Birming-Federal court this afternoon for re-ceivers for the two Kuhn concerns, ham Water Works Company Birming ceivers for the two Kuhn concerns, Judge C. P. Orr appointed for the J. S. & W. S. Kuhn Co., Inc., the two Kuhns and J. K. Duff, treasurer of the banking house. For the Water Works and Guarantee Company were appointed J. S. and W. S. Kuhn and J. S. Purdy, general manager of the company, with a fourth to be appointed. The receivers are required to furnish $50,000 bonds.

The affairs of the First-Second National are to-night in the hands of C. C. Murray, who has been appointed receiver. Bank men are taking some feasurance in this appointment because of Mr. Murray's successful winding up of the affairs of the defunct Allegheny National and Port Pitt National Banks several years ago. Mr. Murray was a former bank examiner. tanooga, Tenn.; City Water Company, East St. Louis, Ill.; Portsmouth, Berk-ley and Suffolk Water Company, which Allegheny National and Fort Pitt National Banks several years ago. Mr. Murray was a former bank examiner.

Said to be Temporary

Financial difficulty confronting the Kuhn interests of Pittsburgh was the cause of the trouble. It is said the trouble is only temporary, and that there is no immediate cause for alarm. Heavy investment in water works preparation. Racine Water Company, Racine, Wis.; Sacramento Valley Irrigation Com-pany; St. Joseph (Mo.) Water Com-pany; South Pittsburgh Water Com-

Let us mail you The Times - Dispatch while on your vacation.

Phone Monroe 1 or call at the Circulation Department of The Times-Dispatch.

ARMY OF GREEKS UTTERLY ROUTED

Washington, July 7.—Secretary Me-Adoo, in a statement to-night, declared that the general banking condition in Pittsburgh, as well as in the entire country, was strong and sound, and that he expected no further trouble as a result of the failure of the Pittsburgh First-Second National Bank

"The failure of the Pittsburgh bank is simply a sporadic case of unsound banking, and has no other significance," the secretary said, the added that the receivership of this institu-

"The recent reports of the national banks to the Comptroller of the Currency show a strong and sound condition throughout the country. The failure of the Pittsburgh bank is simply a sporadic case of unsound banking and has no other significance."

Eyes on Bank for Years.

The critical eyes of government examiners had been on the First National Bank of Pittsburgh for several years and on the consolidated First-Second ever since the amalgamation in March. Suspicion was increased when it was discovered by the June 4 call of the Comptroller of the Currency that the

been a true copy of this report published by the bank in the newspapers of Pittsburgh.

The report to the comptroller showed sests and liabilities aggregating $39, 595,317,10 each, while, as given to the Pittsburgh newspapers for publication.

After working the first National of McKeesport, which also closed its doors to-day, showed capital $300,000; surplus and profits, $569,500; individual deposities, $3,444,500; loans, $2,923,000; cash, 521,680.

After working the first National of McKeesport, which also closed its doors to-day, showed capital $300,000; surplus and profits, $569,500; individual deposities, $3,444,500; loans, $2,923,000; cash, 5221,680.

After working for weeks to prevent, formed Kilkish into another Plevna After working for weeks to prevent, if possible, a receivership for the First-Second, officials declare that they gave up the attempt in despair only after it became known that big depositors of the bank had begun to withdraw their prevented the execution of a plan for the state of the stat deposits. In order to place the little depositors on the same footing with the big ones, the officials decided to place

Building Permits.

DIES OF OVEREXERTION.

Veteran Joins in Re-Enacting Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg.

New York, July 7.—Joseph Husted, who was a member of the Eighty-second New York Regiment when Pickett made his charge at the battle of Gettysburg, and who resolved, and tysburg, and who resolved, and advice of his friends, to re-enact the advice of his friends, to re-enact the scene on the fiftieth anniversary of the day last Thursday, died at his home there last night as a result of his over-exertion in the trip to Gettysburg.

He fell ill on the day he had long little fell ill on the day he had long then at Gettysburg, attended by three of his old comrades, while others were of the charge.

The DROWNED.

The DROWNED.

County, 6...

Frank H. Wadleigh.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va. July 7.—Frank H.

Wadleigh, aged fifty-six years, an inmate of the Elks National Home at Bedford City, died at St. Andrew's Hospital here late yesterday, after having been at the hospital for three weeks, during which time he underwent an operation.

Mr. Wadleigh was a member of the longer at Denver. Col., from the national home at the national national home at the national home at the national home at the n Atlanta, Ga., July 7.—T. D. Thompson, holding a repossible position with the Atlanta Envelope Company, was publicly flogged with a hory whin here the formula of the formul tache of the Central of Georgia Rall-road. Both persons are under arrest

AGAINST LIQUOR effort to find unsuccessful.

November representing all varieties of temperance organizations and a national policy on which all can unite will be adopted."

Mr. Shaw does not expect more than 10,000 or 12,000 in attendance at the convention concent

Hour by hour I saw you fade And slowly sink away, Yet in my heart I often prayed That you might longer stay, Ged loved him, too, and He thought hest To take our loved one home to rest. HIS PARENTS.

GOODE.—Died. July 7th. 6 A. M. LOUISE KELLEY GOODE, wife of Aylett W. Goode. Besides her husband, she is survived by one child, Madeline Harlan, and one brother, Wellford H. Kelley.
Funeral from Union Station M. E. Church July 8th, 3 P. M. Friends and acquaintances invited.

ROANE.—After a long and lingering illness MRS. ADA B. ROANE, beloved wife of S. H. Roane, Sr., died at her home, in Highland Springs, Stop 28, July 6, at 8:15 P. M. Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, two sons, one sister and two brothers and many near and dear relatives and friends to mourn their irreparable loss. She accepted Christ as her Saviour in the days of her youth, and died in the sweet assurance of everlasting life beyond the grave through the merits of His blood.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever awakes weep.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home July 8th at 10:30 A. M. Interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

ROSE—Died, at Newark, N. J., July 3, 1913, DEWITT BOUGHRUM ROSE, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rose, of 1627 West Grace Street. He was buried at Long Branch, N. J.

Guaranteed Investment

There is absolutely no risk in the purchase of one of our Pianos, as each is guaranteed to give satisfaction, not only at the time of purchase, but a factory guarantee for TEN YEARS is also given. If the mechanism of a piano will stand ten years, why not a life-

The Corley Company "The House That Made Richmond Musical"

WHITE HOUSE DESERTED.

Rudolph Forster, Assistant Secretary to Many Presidents, on Guard. Washington, July 7.—Rudolph Fors-ter, the old reliable assistant secretary ter, the old reliable assistant secretary to many Presidents, was the highest official on duty at the White House today. President Wilson is not expected back from Cornish before Wednesday morning, and Secretary Tumulty, who is at Avon, N. J., with his family, will not be at his desk before to-morrow, and possibly not until Wednesday.

and possibly not until Wednesday.

Mr. Forster has been the "whole works" at the White House since last Friday, as he has on many another oc-casion in the absence of higher offcasion in the absence of higher offi-cials, including the President, Knowing of the absence of the President, few callers went to the White House, and these merely inquired as to the return of Mr. Wilson or Secretary building.

The loss by fire, it is said, will not exceed $30,000.

OBITUARY

men were swept away by the strong men were swept away by the strong tide.

P. M. McTighe, a medical student of Fordham University, swam out into the river and dived time and again in an effort to find the bodies, but he was unsuccessful.

Will Not Discuss Plans.

Newport, R. i., July 7.—Captain Templin N. Potts, U. S. N., retired, until last week commander of the battleship Louisiana, accompanied by an attoreny, left to-day for Washington, where, according to intimate friends, he will seek to have reversed the action of the 'plucking board,' which retired him before he had an opportunity to reach it the grade of rear admiral. Captain Potts would not discuss his plans.

DEATHS

HAWES,—Died, July 6, 1913, at 9:30 P. M., in the residence of his sister, Mrs. Glock to-morrow afternoon.

DEATHS

HAWES,—Died, July 6, 1913, at 9:30 P. M., in the residence of his size. Informent Till'S (Tuesday) MORN-ING at 11 o'clock at Cool Springs Baptist Church, Atlee, Va.

THURMAN,—Died, July 7, 1913, at 3:50 A. M., at the residence of his parents, Till-2 Chima Street, FRANK JOSEPH THURMAN, son of G. W. and Maggie Buyess Thurman, aged one year and eight days.

Funeral from Sacred Heart Candedral THIS (Tuesday) AFTER-NOON at 5 o'clock.

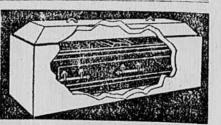

Hour by hour I saw you fade And slowly sink away, Yet in my heart I often prayed.

That you might loncer size.

That you might loncer size.

Stephenson Alsop.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Vn., July 7.—Stephenson Alsop died here at the home of his mother, Mrs. B. F. Trigger, of typhoid fever, aged twenty-one years. He is survived by his mother and three brothers. brothers.

Ask you undertaker. Price, $50,00. Write for booklet. Reinterring a spe-

Cement Burial Vault Co. OF RICHMOND, INC., Phone County 3204.